If elected, I will follow the rules and complete the duties of my office with the understanding that I may be removed from office if I violate the rules or do not perform the duties of my office. I realize the amount of time this position takes and will strive to be a positive role model. My signature also states that my election packet is complete without error and I meet all of the requirements for the office which I am running. I further understand Mrs. Simmons reserves the right to disqualify me from the election process for just reasons.
